FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

VOLUNTEERS needed to host INTERNATIONAL VISITORS!

WHAT: Tajikistan Visitors,
Veterinarians for Livestock program

WHEN: July 31st — August 7th, and August 9th – August 19th

- ◇ Duties include hosting the visitor(s) overnight, helping to get them to and from the Quality Inn and Suites in the mornings and evenings, providing dinner and breakfast
- ◇ Hosts may choose to have one or more participants, may accommodate the visitors only for a portion of the program (minimum of 3 nights preferred)
- ◇ Several fun events will be planned with the group as a whole

Community Connections is a program through the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID). Participants come to the host community for 22 days of professional development and networking, as well as for cultural exposure to America.

One of the most valuable aspects of this program is Home Stays with local residents.

Please contact Deborah Lake at the Iowa Council for International Understanding if you want to share your home with these dynamic groups.
