

U.S. CENTER FOR CITIZEN DIPLOMACY

in partnership with Gallup and World Affairs Councils of America, presents a national forum series:

WHO SPEAKS for ISLAM?

What a Billion Muslims Really Think

In conjunction with a new publication, Who Speaks for Islam?, that is the culmination of a multi-year polling effort in 35 countries that disproves Western myths about Muslims.

FEATURING CO-AUTHOR: Dalia Mogahed, senior analyst and executive director of the Gallup Center for Muslim Studies, Washington, D.C.

5:30 pm, Tuesday, May 27

Des Moines Public Library's Central Library
1000 Grand Avenue in downtown Des Moines

Doors open at 5 pm with light hors d'oeuvres and refreshments.

On Wednesday, May 28, 5:00 to 7:00 pm., the second forum will be presented at Creighton Law School, Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska in collaboration with Creighton's Asian World Center (www2.creighton.edu/ccas/asianworldcenter/index.php). Forums will continue in the fall 2008 in Naples, Florida; Springfield, Illinois; and Missoula, Montana.

DES MOINES PARTNERS: The forum's presentation in Des Moines is in cooperation with the Des Moines Public Library, Iowa Council for International Understanding, Iowa Sister States, and Rotary Club of Des Moines, A.M.

PANEL DISCUSSION: In Des Moines, a panel will respond to Ms. Mogahed's presentation. The panel will include: Khalid A. Khan, architect, HLKB Architects; Kyle Munson, writer/editor, The Des Moines Register; and Donna Scarfe, director of interpreting services, Deaf Action Center.
